ACT TWO: THE OVERLONG TITLE THAT A WRITER PASTED FROM A LOGLINE BECAUSE THE TITLE FIELD ALLOWS TWO HUNDRED CHARACTERS AND NOBODY STOPPED TYPING IT ALL OUT BEFORE SAVING THE ACT

2 sequences · 6 scene cards · 1 beat

SEQUENCE Establishing the world, the people, the weather, the debt, the rumour and the one thing nobody in the village will say out loud

6 scene cards · 1 beat

1 INT./EXT. HARBOURMASTER'S OFFICE - THE OLD SIGNAL TOWER STAIRWELL LEADING DOWN TO THE FLOODED BOAT SHED BELOW THE SEA WALL - CONTINUOUS - LATE AFTERNOON (THREE YEARS BEFORE THE STORM)

Ines carries the ledger down three flights while the tide chases her up the other way. She argues with her brother through the floor, and every word is a different version of the same apology. Neither of them says the name of the boat. The shed doors begin to move on their own.
